

Real people.
Real stories.

John and Denise B.

On Chubb value:

“It’s a rare treat in this world to have a company give you back so much for what you paid.”

On Chubb protection:

“You could not be in better hands.”

On Chubb expertise:

“Everybody who touched the job was at the highest level.”

Denise was cleaning up after a big party when she realized that several inches of water had flooded their master bedroom and all the bathrooms. She called Chubb immediately, and their representatives arrived a mere hour and a half later. Chubb quickly and professionally identified the full scope of the problem and developed a plan.

The very next day, John and Denise received a check in the mail to offset their initial costs. They were shocked by the speed of Chubb’s response and by the amount of work that was necessary to restore their home.

Water was backed up everywhere. John and Denise say that throughout the entire cleanup and restoration, Chubb exceeded their expectations, were always thinking three steps ahead, and everyone involved with the job delivered the highest level of service.

Chubb made things as easy as possible, and John and Denise’s holidays went off without a hitch.

Today, they have no doubts whatsoever that they made the right decision going with Chubb 25 years ago, and they regularly recommend Chubb to their friends and family. Of course, their story is not out of the ordinary for Chubb. That’s just the way we do business.
