| Coverage feature                                | What it means   | Why it matters   |
|---|---|--|
| "All-risk" coverage                             | Protection against property damage or loss regardless of cause (specific exclusions apply in some instances).   | You can rely on broad coverage with few restrictions.  |
| High deductible options                         | We offer a wide range of deductible options, up to $100,000.   | Assuming more up-front risk may reduce your annual premium. This feature also applies to separate hurricane or wind and hail deductibles in storm-prone areas, like Florida. |
| Guaranteed rebuilding cost <sup>1</sup>         | In most states, we offer guaranteed rebuilding cost coverage for the house and other permanent structures; no cap or limitation for rebuilding your home at its current location.   | We can cover the costs to rebuild your home to match its exceptional building quality, even if doing so exceeds your policy limits.  |
| Extended rebuilding cost                        | Extended rebuilding cost coverage provides additional coverage as a stated percentage increase above the limits of insurance shown on the declarations page to rebuild your home at its current location. States applicable:California: 100%Florida, Hawaii and South Carolina: 50% | If rebuilding your home or other permanent structures to their current standards costs more than your policy limits, you can expect additional reimbursement.                |
| Cash settlement option                          | After a total loss, you can opt to receive a cash settlement, up to the coverage limit, rather than rebuild on-site.  | In the unfortunate event your home is destroyed, a cash payout allows you to rebuild elsewhere or purchase a new home. <sup>2</sup>  |
| Contents  | Damaged personal property can be repaired or replaced with new item(s); reimbursement is available up to your "contents" coverage limit.  | You will not be penalized for depreciation at claim time.  |
| Building ordinance                              | We can pay for required upgrades to satisfy local building ordinances during the rebuilding process (accounts for mandated increases and rebuilding costs).   | You won't be responsible for expenses tied to required changes that are directly linked to the property damage.  |
| Additional living expense and fair rental value | We cover necessary increases in living expenses if your home is uninhabitable at claim time; includes loss of income if the home is rented to others.   | You can maintain a comparable standard of living if displaced from your home.  |

| Fire department charges               | We reimburse you for charges (up to the policy limit) imposed by law or assumed by written agreement when the fire department responds to your home (no deductible).   | There's no need to worry about out-of-pocket expenses if the fire department is called to your home.  |
| Lock replacement                      | You're covered if your house keys are lost or stolen (no deductible).  | There's no need to worry about out-of-pocket expenses.  |
| Business property                     | Up to $25,000 is available for a covered loss to business property that you own or lease.   | Most homeowners policies do not provide coverage for property used for business purposes.   |
